MRS. CLIMIE DEAD

Aged Resident Passed Away on Monday — Was Native of Canada.

At the advanced age of eighty-three, Mrs. George S. Climie passed to her reward on Monday afternoon, May 10. Owing to the state of Mrs. Climie's health for some time past death was not entirely unexpected to those acquainted with her age and condition. Nevertheless news of her death came as a shock to the many friends of herself and family.

Mrs. Climie came to Southern California nine years ago with four of her daughters, to spend her declining years amidst the flowers and sunshine of the southwest and to escape the rigors of Canadian winters. Previous to locating here she had lived in Listowel, Canada, for fifty years. Her husband, who passed away in 1882, and her relatives were foremost among the pioneers who developed that section of the country.

Mrs. Climie was a native of Forfarshire, Scotland. She came of a family noted for its rugged, honest strength of character.

Four daughters and three sons survive to mourn the loss of their mother. The daughters, all of whom have resided with their mother at the Grand View avenue home, are Misses Jean, Anna, Mary and Jessie Climie. The sons are Mr. John Climie of Alabama, Mr. William Climie of Ontario and Mr. Andrew Climie of Los Angeles.

Interment was by private service in the Sierra Madre cemetery, on Wednesday, May 12, Dr. James M. Campbell being in charge.

Word has been received of the death in Los Angeles of Mrs. E. M. Fitzackerly who spent several months here recently. She had been in the real estate business and while in Sierra Madre laid out and began the development of the Gurhardy tract in the northwest part of town. Her health was very poor and she returned to Los Angeles a few weeks ago.

CITY TRUSTEES MEET

The city trustees met in regular session last evening. In addition to the usual amount of varied discussions, the ordinance ordering the improvement of Sunnyside was passed; current salary bills were ordered paid; a resolution was passed to designate as an extension of Adams street the short street north of Grand View in the Fairview tract thitherto unnamed; it was voted to furnish a light as a part of the street lighting system for the fire warning sign to be erected at the foot of the trail by J. B. McNally; adjournment was taken till tonight, when the gas bond matter will be considered.

Hardly had the proud father entered the sick room to get his first glimpse of the new twins than both newborns set up a loud bawling. "Now, now," cautioned the father, holding up his hand and glancing from one red face to the other, "one at a time; one at a time!"

CARELESS ABOUT FIRES

Mountain Climbers Growing Careless and Leave Camp Fires Burning

Manager F. B. Ross of Mt. Wilson and J. B. McNally of Orchard Camp have joined forces for the placing of a large, illuminated sign over the foot of the trail warning "hikers" of the danger of fires. It will call the attention of mountain climbers to the fact that Mt. Wilson is private property and fires are prohibited. The sign will be illuminated at night so that no mountain climber can have any excuse for not knowing the regulations.

Strict regulation of fires in the mountains cannot be too carefully emphasized. It is of importance not only to the resort owners but to the cities and ranchers whose water supply depends largely upon the preservation of trees and brush on the mountain sides.

Criminal carelessness on the part of campers is reported by many men who have returned from the West Fork fishing grounds lately. Two of the boys who went in the night before the opening of the fishing season reported finding no less than six fires along the Sturtevant trail, left by campers who had gone over the trail earlier in the night. Up and down the West Fork fishermen found fires left burning against banks and logs. The absence of forest rangers made the careless ones think they need take no precautions whatever. Mr. Ross is determined to stop the practice and promises good stiff fines for the first offenders against whom proof can be secured.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETS

Largely Attended Meeting Held on Monday Evening

Monday evening's regular meeting of the Board of Trade was one of the most largely attended held for some months. Several new members were admitted and several matters of more or less importance were considered.

The membership committee reported favorably on applications of J. H. Wright, S. H. Spafford, E. B. Van Zandt and Betts & Welsher. All save the first named were present to "ride the goat."

The matter of placing Sierra Madre photographs in the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and Pacific Electric station, authorized at the last meeting, was brought up again. It was voted to carry out the plan on a more pretentious scale than had been authorized. The committee in charge was authorized to spend not more than $50 for three large panoramic views of Sierra Madre, one to be placed in each of the places named, and the third to be presented to the Woman's Club for the new club house.

President Keys announced the appointment of Messrs. F. D. R. Moote, J. A. Osgood and L. Dietz as the committee to supervise the campaign for beautification of Sierra Madre property. With Mr. Moote as chairman these gentlemen will devise and carry out plans for stimulating interest in this work.

Sierra Madre will have a float in the great parade during the Elks' convention in Los Angeles in June. The board voted to undertake the matter and President Keys appointed C. F. Gray, L. R. Smith and A. L. Robinson to do it up right.

Other matters having been disposed of, Uncle Henry Hosmer arose to inquire whether the new hotel proposition was dead or merely somnolent. The discussion which followed indicated that while the proposition was nearly if not quite dead, there was still considerable interest in it.

It was found by the committee in charge that the first and one of the worst difficulties to be encountered was the matter of a site. Several had been offered, but most of them at large advances over prevailing prices. From $40,000 to $70,000 was demanded for sites which had previously been on the market at much lower figures. With owners of desirable sites in this attitude the committee had thought it useless to proceed further.

To bring the matter to a focus Mr. Hosmer agreed to bring before the next meeting of the board a definite proposal for a site, which he hoped would solve at least that phase of the problem. It was thought that the matter of a site might better be left to a smaller committee than the original hotel committee and on motion, President Keys appointed Messrs. Kindig, Hosmer and Kersting to see the sites and cite the hotel committee to the best in sight, price and other things considered.

One thing that developed in the discussion was a strong opinion that a hotel should be located on the car line or at some point easily reached by the line. Mr. Kindig argued that $50,000 would provide an attractive, modern building large enough to demonstrate whether or not the project could be made to pay and in such form that additions could be made from time to time.

BASEBALL TOMORROW

Globe Milling Co. Team Will Play the Local Ball Tossers

A game of real baseball is promised for tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon on the local diamond. The Sierra Madre team will cross bats with the Globe Milling Co. team from Los Angeles and a warm game is assured, as the visitors are rated high. The full strength of the local team is promised by the management. Come out and give the home team your encouragement.

No game was played last Saturday by the local team, but the grounds were kept warm with a game between two picked teams. The Sierra Madre Juniors, however, went to Glendora and brought home the scalps of the boys' team of that place. When the final count was finished the score stood at 10 to 3 or thereabouts for the Sierra Madre team.

Large attendance, liberal returns and a thoroughly good time characterized the Brinley benefit entertainment at Town Hall last Saturday evening. Dancing and cards were enjoyed by a large crowd. The receipts at the door and for the sale of refreshments brought in a goodly sum to be devoted to a most worthy cause.

GALA DAY FOR CLUB

Cornerstone of New Club House Laid with Appropriate Ceremonies.

Monday was a red-letter day for Sierra Madre in general, as well as for the ladies of the Woman's club. While construction work at the new club house had been progressing long enough to indicate the general shape and proportions of the building, the ceremonies attendant upon the laying of the cornerstone added the feature needed to make the real character of the enterprise apparent.

The weather man was kind, though not in his best mood. However the day was pleasant for the outdoor ceremonies. Contractor Gilbert had kindly arranged chairs upon the floor of what will be the main auditorium and the ceremonies were conducted upon the rostrum of the auditorium.

The program, as printed in the News last week, was in charge of Mrs. George H. Letteau, president of the Woman's Club Building association. The singing of "Estudiantina" by six ladies was greeted with prolonged applause. The ladies, who sang without accompaniment, were Misses Cook, Staples, Rice, Mrs. W. E. Bechtelheimer, Mrs. J. J. Graham and Miss Caskey. After the invocation by Rev. Dr. Campbell, Mrs. J. A. Osgood, the club's first president, spoke on the subject of the club's new home. Mrs. Osgood is known and loved throughout clubdom in Southern California and her remarks were heard with deep interest as she told of the development of the clubhouse idea.

Brief, pithy addresses were given by Mayor C. W. Jones, President J. W. Keys of the Board of Trade, and Father Barth. It was evident from their remarks that interest in the new club house is not confined to the ladies of the community.

Mrs. Charles E. Bentham, president of the Woman's Club delighted the assemblage with her scholarly address. Mrs. Bentham is known throughout Southern California among club women and in educational circles and some of the reasons for the esteem in which she is held were brought out forcibly in her address, as she told of the ideals of the club and of the larger work which it is hoped may be accomplished with the added facilities which will be at the disposal of the club.

Following the president's address, the cornerstone was laid at the northeast corner of the building. Mrs. Bentham, using a small silver trowel which had been prepared for the occasion, placed a part of the mortar about the stone. The song written for the occasion by Mrs. C. H. Baker, was then sung by the assemblage, following which Rev. Mr. Bentham pronounced the benediction marking the close of the ceremonies.

GETTING THERE

George Landis Wilson, in "The Business Philosopher."

Achievement is a simple stunt when you stop and think it over. There are only four steps in achievement.

4. FINISH.

3. STICK

2. START.

1. DECIDE.

Too many people are content to take the first two steps and then start off in another direction so that they never arrive anywhere. Such people have courage and initiative but they lack perseverance and concentration. It seems to be all a matter of habit. Dreaming is a delightful pastime but a poor vacation. Imagination is the foundation of all progress but the superstructure is built of solid stuff like pure grit and hard work.

In the building of a life, nature seems to enforce ordinances to the effect that man is his own contractor, his own foreman, his own workman. Union rules do not apply; he is on the job twenty-four hours per day and seven days each week. Raw material seems to lie around in abundance; plans and specifications are freely offered in the market. But, my boy, if your structure ever rises above the dead level of the surrounding earth, The Stunt is Up to You.

DOGS GET CYANIDE

Many persons felt more than a momentary pang of sorrow when they learned that Ned, the fine collie belonging to Miss Anita Carter, had been poisoned and died last Saturday morning. Ned was one of the best known dogs in town and one of the best liked of all dogdom in Sierra Madre. His handsome coat and cleverness made him a general favorite. He was eight or nine years old and had long been familiar to Sierra Madre people who had seen him accompany his mistress as she rode or drove about town. The dog poisoner got in some deadly work last Saturday night. Two dogs belonging to C. E. Chantry were found dead in the yard, where poisoned meat had evidently been thrown to them. It is thought cyanide was used. It is also thought that Miss Carter's dog got some of the poison, either in such small quantity or so deeply buried in the meat that it did not take immediate effect, as he was able to get home, where he lay down in his accustomed place near the house and died soon afterward. A humane officer from Pasadena was called to investigate the case but was unable to find evidence as to the guilty person.

BY THE WAY

Will someone kindly suggest a suitable punishment for the dog poisoner. Of course it might be well to first find your man. When caught he might be fed on a diet of raw dog for the first offense. If that failed to cure him it might be well to season the diet with a little of the stuff he feeds the dogs.

Mother's Day was observed pretty generally, but on account of the sale of Mother's Day souvenirs on Saturday many people did not seem to know whether Saturday or Sunday was the day to be observed. What's the difference? There ought to be 365 Mother's Days in every year, with an extra one every fourth year.

With prospects brighter for the early completion of the foothill boulevard project in the county's $3,500,000 highway system, it is time for Sierra Madre to see that everything possible is done toward putting the approaches from the boulevard to our own streets in good shape. When the Board of Trade committee attempted about a year ago to get the highway commission to bring the main boulevard through Sierra Madre an alternative suggestion was made and tentatively agreed upon. This called for the disincorporation by Sierra Madre of Sierra Madre avenue south of Central, provided the county would improve the avenue the entire distance from White Oak to the paving on the west end of Central. Now is a good time to remind the highway commissioners of their promise.

Azusa Pomotrophic.—Two young men near Sierra Madre should be voted a gold medal. They ran their auto into the ditch to keep from running over a buggy driven by two ladies. Their names and places of residence are not given, but we wager they are not millionaires and do not live in Los Angeles.

WHEN THE DEAR PEOPLE WAIT

Glendale News.—The Pacific Electric Railway company may be above criticism, but at the same time we rise to remark that the people who patronize its cars have some rights, legal and otherwise, which it would be well to respect. The practice which that company indulges in occasionally of dropping out altogether a car on the evening schedule, as was done one evening last week, and has been done on previous occasions, is rather rank and risky railroading. The public has a right to expect and depend upon cars leaving according to schedule time unless interfered with by act of Providence, and we have no reason to believe that Providence is responsible for the failure to send out a car on the Glendale line simply because there was something "unusual" going on at San Pedro!

A PUBLIC DUTY

Alhambra Advocate.—Within a few days our national day of sorrow will be observed under the title of Decoration Day. It should not be left to the old war veterans to take the initiative in the preparations. They will help, and as many as can walk will participate. They will proudly carry the flag and lovingly deck the graves of their comrades. And mayhap some one of them will utter a few words of admonition to the youth, touching the theme of loyalty to the flag and all that it represents. The ranks of the survivors are responding to the last call very fast. But a decade hence one will see no marching of the gray veterans and the post halls will be closed and silent.

MERE MAN'S CHANCE

Whittier Register.—Gentlemen: You don't realize your opportunity for dramatic effect. It's no use kicking about those monstrous hats the ladies hoist in front of you everywhere. Can't you see your opportunity—get hats made of umbrellas, one above the other, frescoed and weatherboarded with seaweed, flowers and alfalfa, adorned with paintings of jackrabbits, jim-crows and bantam cockerels; then go to church and take front seats without removing your head-togs. A suffragettes' riot wouldn't be a starter. Man's rights deserve a little boost; try it.

CHANGE OF MANAGERS

Monrovia News.—W. A. White, so long the efficient manager of the Edison Electric Co.'s business in Monrovia, severed his connection with the company May 1st by resignation, to take up the management of the Covina Valley Gas Co., which will serve Covina, Azusa and Glendora with gas for lighting and fuel. Mr. White is succeeded here by Mr. B. F. Storey, formerly auditor in the company's general office. (Mr. Storey will probably be found on occasion swapping Kentucky yarns with Messrs. Baldwin, Dougherty, Conway, McClymonds, et al, for he hails originally from the blue grass country, the land of genuine fraternity and good fellowship, when the deadly feud does not intervene, and where fast horses and beautiful women dominate the social atmosphere, and where general society has succeeded allegiance to booze among the people.)

Student of Astronomy.—I have discovered a new star, professor. Professors—What's she playing in, my boy?—Harvard Lampoon.

SENTIMENTAL

They stood beside the meadow bars,
Beneath the twinkling sky,
Above them, evening's stars
Like diamonds shone on high.
They stood knee-deep in clover,
But whispered not of vows,
As, silently, they lingered there—
Two peaceful Jersey cows.

A COMMUNICATION

Sierra Madre, May 12, 1909.

Mr. and Mrs. Brinley desire in this way to express to their many friends their appreciation of the great kindness of which they have been the recipients. The kindly interest thus manifested by so many well-wishers, and the generous assistance extended in their time of need have deeply touched them and made them very happy, and they are very grateful for the benefit conferred.

It has been said that no one can escape the consequences of his acts, and on this decree hang many sorrows. But happily under the beautiful law of compensation a kind act inevitably returns upon the doer. "It is twice blessed; it blesseth him that gives and him that doth receive."

Some of the best of the late fiction is included. Among the most widely read is "Septimus," which has been extremely popular of late, if sales in the larger cities are a criterion. The book is by the author of "The Beloved Vagabond," though entirely different in character. Among the books recently received are the following:

Fifty-four Forty or Flight, Emerson Hough.

The Great Miss Driver, Anthony Hope.

Holy Orders, Marie Correlli.

Lewis Rand, Mary Johnston.

The Bronze Bell, Joseph Vance.

Anne of the Green Gables, L. M. Montgomery.

HISTORICAL NUMBER

Out West for May is a historical number of particular interest. "The Making of Los Angeles" by Charles F. Lummis is the leading article. It is well illustrated with reproductions of early prints of scenes in and about Los Angeles up to the early '90s. "Echoes from the Old Courts" and "Chips from the Workshop of History" are also interesting historical articles. "Makers of Los Angeles" is another illustrated article of interest, giving portraits and biographical sketches of about 100 leading citizens of Los Angeles.

Pat had been delegated by his fellow employees to tell Mrs. Casey the news of her husband's accidental death. On the way to the Casey home, Pat pondered on how to break the news to the widow. Finally he hit on what to him seemed a most humane way of preparing Mrs. Casey for the sad news. Knowing the violent hatred which Mrs. Casey, as well as all loyal Irishmen, have for the A. P. A., he said on greeting the women: "Ah, Mrs. Casey, it is bad news I have to bring you. Your husband, Mike, has turned an A. P. A." "Mike turned A. P. A. The scoundrel. I hope he is dead." "He is," answered Pat.

VEST'S EULOGY OF THE DOG

The News has been asked to print the late Senator Vest's "Eulogy on the Dog," one of the Missouri senator's most famous speeches and one of the finest tributes ever paid to that noble animal, the dog. The speech was made in the course of the trial of a man who had wantonly shot a neighbor's dog. Vest had attended the trial as a spectator and was asked to speak by the attorney for the plaintiff. When he finished his brief impromptu speech many of the audience and jury were in tears and after two minutes deliberation the jury awarded the plaintiff $500. The speech follows:

"Gentlemen of the Jury—The best friend a man has in this world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud upon our heads. The one absolutely unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog. Gentlemen of the jury, a man's dog stands by him in prosperity and poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer, he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens. If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by his graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even to death."

Dated April 29th, 1909.

They were talking of the strange sights to be seen in a great city, and one man paid his tribute to New York:

"I don't believe one of you could think of any combination of circumstances that hasn't at some time occurred on the streets there," he said. "I reckon I know of one that's never occurred there," said Hiram Fowle. "What's that?" asked the other, curiously. "I guess," said Hiram, slowly, "that you've never seen, nor ever will see, a brass band going in one direction and the heft of the folks going the other."

AT THE THEATERSMajestic

Kolb and Dill, who have packed the handsome Majestic theater during the past three weeks in "The Politicians," will present the second of their series of laugh shows, "Playing the Ponies," on the Majestic stage next week. "Playing the Ponies" is the piece which Kolb and Dill selected for their opening bill in San Francisco. It ran there for eleven weeks, and the comedians themselves remained for an even six months. In the theater much depends upon first impressions and consequently the duration of Kolb and Dill's stay in Frisco is a high testimonial to the quality of this comedy.

The piece is by Aaron Hoffman and J. A. Raynes, librettist and composer respectively, and who collaborated similarly on "The Politicians." It is said to tell a highly diverting story and to tell it in sprightly fashion, while the music is reputed to have a whistle in its every number.

Burbank

No such elaborate musical comedy production ever has been attempted by a resident stock company as that of "The Circus Girl," which will occupy the Burbank stage next week. The piece, of English authorship—Ivan Caryll and Lionel Monckton composed the music—was imported into America by the late Augustin Daly and had run a little over a year at his New York theater when the run was terminated by Mr. Daly's death. It never has been played in the west, never has been played anywhere in stock nor at less than $1.50 prices. The Burbank production will be made under the personal direction of Harry Girard, who composed the music of "The Alaskan," and who is a stage manager of much ability.

BOND REPORT TONIGHT.

City trustees meet tonight to hear the report of attorneys for Mr. Forney as to the validity of the gas plant bond issue, Mr. Forney's bid being conditional upon the issue's validity. Their first report was adverse but City Attorney Madden pointed out some things which had escaped their notice and caused them to reconsider. Mr. Forney said yesterday that he expected a favorable opinion.

ORDINANCE NO. 93

An Ordinance of the Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre Ordering Certain Work to Be Done on Sunnyside Avenue in Said City of Sierra Madre.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre do ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. That the Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre deems it to be required by the public interest and convenience, and hereby orders that the following street work be done, to-wit:

First. That said Sunnyside Avenue from the intersection of Live Oak Avenue on the south to the south property line of Grand View avenue on the north, including all intersections (except such portions of said street and intersections as are required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, and also excepting such portions of said street and intersections as have already been graded to the official line and grade, oiled and accepted by said city), be graded and oiled in accordance with the plans and profiles for such work on file in the office of the City Engineer of said city, and city specifications for the grading and oiling of streets on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being numbered 10.

Second. That a cement curb be constructed along both sides of said Sunnyside avenue from the north curb line of Live Oak avenue on the south to the south property line of Grand View avenue on the north, (except along such portions of said street between said intersections where a cement curb has been constructed to line and grade and accepted by said city,) in accordance with the plans and profiles for such work on file in the office of the City Engineer of said city, and specifications for the construction of cement curbs on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City, said specifications being numbered 2.

Third. That a cement gutter five (5) feet in width be constructed along the westerly side of said Sunnyside avenue from the north curb line of Live Oak avenue on the south to the south property line on Grand View avenue on the north, (except along such portions of said westerly side of said street where a cement gutter five (5) feet in width has been constructed to the official line and grade and accepted by said city,) in accordance with the plans and profiles for such work on file in the office of the City Engineer of said city, and city specifications for the construction of cement gutters on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being numbered 8.

Fourth. That a cement gutter two and one-half (2½) feet in width be constructed along the easterly side of Sunnyside avenue from the north curb line of Live Oak avenue on the south to the south property line of Grand View avenue on the north, (except along such portions of said easterly side of said street where a cement gutter two and one-half (½) feet in width has been constructed to the official line and grade and accepted by said city,) in accordance with the plans and profiles for such work on file in the office of the City Engineer of said city, and city specifications for the construction of cement gutters on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being numbered 8.

Fifth. That cement concrete culverts be constructed along and across said Sunnyside avenue, between said termini, where shown on the plans and profiles for such work, and in accordance with the number of the plan designated thereon, and in accordance with city specifications for the construction of cement concrete culverts on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being numbered 9.

Sixth. That cement swales be constructed along and across said Sunnyside avenue, between said termini, at such places and of such dimensions as are shown on the plans and profiles for such work on file in the office of the City Engineer of said city of Sierra Madre, and in accordance with city specifications No. 7 on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city.

Sec. 2. That the said Board of Trustees finds, upon estimates of the City Engineer of said city, that the cost of said proposed work or improvement will be greater than fifty cents per front foot along each line of said street so proposed to be improved, as hereinbefore set forth, including the cost of intersection work assessable upon said frontage; and said Board of Trustees determines that serial bonds shall be issued to represent the cost of said work or improvement; said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending nine years from and after the second day of January next succeeding the date of said bonds, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable, by coupon, on the second day of January every year after their date until the whole is paid; and the interest shall be payable semi-annually, by coupon, on the second days of January and July, respectively, of each year, at the rate of seven per cent. per annum on all sums unpaid, until the whole of said principal and interest are paid. Said bonds shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, entitled "An Act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for the payment of such bonds," approved February 27th, 1893, and of all acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof.

Sec. 3. The City Clerk is hereby directed to publish a notice of said work inviting sealed proposals or bids for doing said work and referring to the specifications posted or on file once per week for two successive weeks in the "Sierra Madre News," a weekly newspaper published and circulated in said city, hereby designated for that purpose. Said notice shall require a certified check or bond either as prescribed by law and for an amount not less than ten per cent. of the aggregate of the proposals.

He is also directed to post said notice with specifications conspicuously for five days on or near the chamber door of the place of meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Sec. 4. The City Clerk shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once per week for two successive weeks in said "Sierra Madre News," and thereupon and thereafter it shall take effect and be in force.

The foregoing ordinance was adopted by the Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre at a regular meeting of said Board held on the 13th day of May, 1909, by the affirmative vote of at least three Trustees, to-wit:

Ayes: Messrs. Graham, Hosmer, Pegier, Steinberger and Jones.

Noes: None.

And signed and approved this 13th day of May, 1909.

The commercial traveler had been summoned as a witness, and the counsel for the defense was cross-examining him, and eliciting many interesting details as to "exes," etc. "You travel for Jobson, Hobson, Slobson & Co., don't you?" said the lawyer. "Yes, sir." "How long have you been in their employ?" "About ten years." "And you have been traveling all that time, have you?" "Well, no, sir," confessed the nothing-but-the-truthful witness, making a hasty mental calculation, "not actually traveling. I have put in about four years of that time waiting at railway stations."

During the encampment of several regiments of British soldiers in a certain district the wood and turf used for cooking purposes were carted by the neighboring farmers. One day a donkey-cart full of turf was brought in, the driver being a country lad. As a regimental band was playing, he stood in front of the donkey and held the animal tightly by the head. Some of the "smart ones" gathered round, highly pleased, and the wit of the party asked why he "held his brother so tightly." The reply was crushing: "I'm afraid he might enlist."

Fishing is Uncertain

Sometimes you get results and sometimes you don't; much depends, among other things on both the bait and the fish.

So far, we have found that in using Sierra Madre's peculiar advantages and beauties as a bait we could interest a certain kind. Some fish will bite at almost any old thing that has the remotest resemblance to a worm. Others, the more desirable ones, can be tempted only by the most delicate flies and careful fishing.

The latter is the class to whom our bait appeals. They are entirely too esthetic and sensible to strike at the first thing they find in Southern California. But when they are offered something real choice, then they bite.

PARTICULAR FISH REQUIRE PARTICULAR BAIT AND PARTICULAR PEOPLE MUST BE OFFERED PARTICULAR PROPERTY.

You can no more interest a refined, cultivated, homeloving man or woman in much of the real estate now on the market than you can tempt one of our delicious but exceedingly elusive mountain trout with a corkscrew.

And so, to repeat, we are after a distinctive type of fish and are using a distinctive type of bait. We are after those whose sense of appreciation and artistic faculties are so highly developed that they can realize the unexcelled advantages of Sierra Madre as a home town. And as we wish to inform you fishes, both big and little, that if you are a mud cat or a shark or a tarpon or a carp or anything similar to these, we are not after you—don't worry. We are looking only for the very best, and if you are not in this class don't pay any attention to what we have to say—some other fellow will have a hook out for you.

But if you can appreciate a real good thing and know the difference between real estate inflation and genuine values, we would like to talk over Sierra Madre property with you. And right here we would like to call your attention to the difference in fishermen. Some will catch you if it takes a thrust with a boat hook or a stick of dynamite to do it, while others give the fish every advantage and catch him by fair means.

If you expect to get caught on the real estate hook, pick your fisherman. We have the bait, we want only the choicest of fish and we are trying to give the fish fair play. Choose for yourself.

GRAFTER IN JAIL

It took but a very short time for C. J. Fox to get Fred Wilson behind the bars at Yuma for grafting on pretense of representing the Police Gazette at Yuma, Gila and other Arizona places as reported in last week's News. After being taken into custody at Gila Wilson was taken by the authorities to Yuma where he had first worked his game. Mr. Fox went to Yuma last Friday, Wilson was arraigned, pleaded guilty and was given sixty days, Mr. Fox being unwilling that he be given a longer sentence.

It was cloudy when Mr. Fox arrived in Yuma on Friday morning and he thought he was about to get the benefit of the signs on the hotel which promise free board and lodging on any day of the year on which the sun does not shine. But about noon the sun dispelled all such thoughts and made Mr. Fox welcome the coming of the train which was to take him out of the desert.

WINS BRONZE BUTTON

Miss Lottie Humphries Proves to Be an Expert Angler

The honor of winning the first bronze button of the season at Catalina Island has been achieved by Miss Lottie Humphries of Sierra Madre, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Manning of Avalon for several weeks. Miss Humphries thus qualifies as a member of the Catalina Light Tackle club. The catch, made on Monday, May 10, was a 22-pound white sea bass, caught with a 9-ounce rod and 9-thread line.

In addition to the button-winning sea bass Miss Humphries on the same morning caught six barracuda, seven rock bass, one yellowtail and another white sea bass, all with light tackle. She says it was the hardest morning's work she had done for many months. It took her nearly thirty minutes to reel in the yellowtail, which, next to the tuna, is considered the greatest fighter of the fish in Southern California waters. It will require some "tall tales" from the fishermen of the West Fork to equal the record of Miss Humphries at Catalina.
